Mr. John D. Hickerson
Deputy for Foreign Affairs
The National War College
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Sir:

In accordance with the suggestion in your letter dated 10 December 1953, we have conferred with Captain Harry A. Halliwell, Adjutant, the National War College, regarding payment for the cost of temporary travel duty abroad of three officers of this Agency who are members of the student body at the National War College.

We are pleased to advise you that funds are available for this purpose and, in accordance with our understanding with Captain Halliwell, we will make a direct reimbursement to the three individuals concerned for per diem and other approvable incidental expenses. Arrangements are being made with the individuals accordingly.

Sincerely,

151

L. K. White
Acting Deputy Director
